Sir,

In G.O. No.2165 Mis., Law (General) Department, dated 2nd July 1926, the Government ordered the abolition of the Village Panchayat Court at Kanayana and the extension to this village of the jurisdiction of the Karopadi Panchayat Court. A single Panchayat Court has, therefore, been constituted for the villages of Kanyana and Karopadi with effect from 1st November 1926.

2. In the elections held in connection with the above clubbing, the result has been that a party of five out of the eight members, consisting of the potails of Karopadi and Kanyana with their relations and friends has got into power.

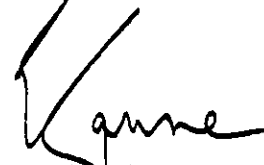

The villagers of Karopadi who are not on good terms with the pottail of Karopadi feel that they have been unjustly deprived of the benefits of the village court which was existing in their village till 31st October 1926. The Pottail of Kanyan is the President of the Court and the enquiry shows that some of the members including the pottail of Karopadi are his relations and another is either a friend or a relation of his tenant.

3. The villagers of Karopadi have now applied for the establishment of a separate Panchayat Court for their village. It is quite natural that they should feel disinclined to take suits to the present Panchayat Court where the majority is under the influence of the Karopadi Pottail and they themselves are in a minority. If a separate court is established for the village of Karopadi, the pottail of Karopadi will lose the assistance of his relations, the pottail of Kanyan, and the other Kanyan members, ^{and} the Court may go on smoothly as before. I therefore recommend that a separate court may be established for the village of Karopadi with effect from 1st November 1927.

4. The village of Kanyan has shown itself unable to conduct its own court and has spoilt the joint panchayat court. In the circumstances I cannot recommend a separate panchayat court at all for this village.

5. The draft notification under sub-sections (7) and (1) of section 9 of the Madras Village Courts Act, 1888 is herewith submitted for approval and publication.

Your obedient servant,

Collector.
